

Fenatnyl and the affect on National Overdose Rates

Abstract

This study will draw draw from the data released by the CDC on monthly death rates by state in the U.S. Death rates are categorized by the type of drug involved and an entry of all total deaths(including non drug related) is listed per state. An analysis of the data will determine which states and regions have been affected most by the increase of fentanyl among drug users in the U.S.

References

<https://healthdata.gov/dataset/VSRR-Provisional-Drug-Overdose-Death-Counts/and2-axw4>

Gerald Bourdeau